UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

For that whereas the said County of Warren heretofore, to wit, on the twenty-fifth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, made their two hundred bonds under the seal of said county, duly signed by the clerk of the county court of said county and numbered respectively from one to two hundred, inclusive, which said bonds are severally in substance as follows:

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

STATE OF (Lithograph.) ILLINOIS.

No. .] COUNTY OF WARREN. [$1,000

On the first day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety, the County of Warren, and State of Illinois, promises to pay to the Rockford, Rock Island and Saint Louis Railroad Company or bearer the sum of one thousand dollars, and interest thereon, at the rate of eight per cent. per annum, payable annually, on the first day of July in each year, on presentation to the treasurer of said
7 Warren County of the respective interest-coupons which are hereto severally adjoined.

This bond is issued in conformity with the vote of the electors of said county, cast at an election held on the twenty-third day of September, A. D. 1869.

(On each margin:) 1,000 dollars.

(Across the face, in red:) $1,000.

In testimony whereof and pursuant to the authority granted by law, and upon the order of the Board of Supervisors of said Warren County, passed at an adjourned session thereof, begun on the 25th day of January, A. D. 1871, I, clerk of the county court of said county, have hereunto signed my name as such clerk, and affixed the seal of said county court, this 25th day of January, A. D. 1871.

{ SEAL WARREN COUNTY ILLINOIS COURT. }

W. G. BONE,
Clerk of the County Court of Warren County.

[United States internal-revenue stamp.]

(Across the face of the stamp, in red:) County of Warren, Jan. 25, 1871.

In and by which said bonds, and each of them, said Warren County promised to pay to the Rockford, Rock Island and Saint Louis Railroad Company or bearer one thousand dollars on the first day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety, with interest thereon at the rate of eight per cent. per annum, payable an-8 nually, on the first day of July in each year, on presentation to the treasurer of said Warren County of the respective interest-coupons to said bonds severally attached, and did attach to each of said bonds twenty coupons each for the sum of eighty dollars, in and by each of which said coupons said County of Warren promised to pay the bearer eighty dollars, at the date in said coupons respectively provided, at the office of the treasurer of said county of Warren, to wit, in said county.

And the plaintiff avers that afterwards, on, to wit, the thirtieth day of January, A. D. 1871, the said Rockford, Rock Island and Saint Louis Railroad Company assigned and transferred to the plaintiff, to wit, ten of said coupons maturing and falling due July first, A. D. 1871, and forty-three of said coupons maturing and falling due July first, A. D. 1872, and sixty of said coupons maturing and falling due July first, A. D. 1873, by means whereof said County of Warren became liable to pay to the bearer of said coupons the amount thereof and of each of the same as the same by the terms thereof became due and payable.

And the said plaintiff avers that ten of said coupons so made as aforesaid, each for the sum of eighty dollars, but each having an endorsement thereon that thirteen dollars and thirty-three cents thereof is cancelled, became due July first, A. D. 1871, and forty-three of said coupons so made as aforesaid, each for the sum of eighty dollars, became due on the first day of July, A. D. 1872, and sixty of said coupons so made as aforesaid, each for the sum of eighty dollars, became 9 due on the first day of July, A. D. 1873.

Yet the said County of Warren, although often requested so to do, has neglected and refused, and still does neglect and refuse, to pay the aforesaid several coupons which became due on said bonds on the first day of July, in the year A. D. 1871, and on the first day of July, A. D. 1872, and on the first day of July, A. D. 1873, and the same severally and each of them still remain due and unpaid, to wit, at the district aforesaid.

And the said plaintiff avers that he is the owner and holder of said coupons and each of them so becoming due as aforesaid, to wit, ten coupons, each for the sum of eighty dollars, with an endorsement on each of the same that thirteen dollars and thirty-three cents thereof is cancelled that became due on first day of July, A. D. 1871, and forty-three coupons that became due on the first day of July, A. D. 1872, and sixty coupons that became due on the first day of July, A. D. 1873, to wit, at the district aforesaid.

And for that whereas the said County of Warren, in the State of Illinois, heretofore, to wit, on the twenty-fifth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, to wit, in the district aforesaid, did make and issue one hundred and thirteen certain coupon-warrants or promises to pay in writing, each for the sum of eighty dollars, in and by ten of which said coupon-warrants or promises to pay in writing said County of Warren promised to pay bearer
10 eighty dollars on the first day of July, in the year A. D. 1871, at the office of the treasurer of said Warren County, to wit, in said county, and in and by forty-three of which said coupon-warrants or promises to pay in writing, and each of them, said County of Warren promised to pay to bearer eighty dollars, on the first day of July, in the year A. D. 1872, at the office of said treasurer of said county of Warren, to wit, in said county, and in and by sixty of which said coupon-warrants or promises to pay in writing, and each of them, said County of Warren promised to pay to bearer eighty dollars on the first day of July, in the year A. D. 1873, at the office of the treasurer of said county of Warren, to wit, in said county. By means whereof the said County of Warren became liable to pay to the bearer of said coupon-warrants the amount thereof, and of each of the same as the same became due and payable.

And the plaintiff avers that he is the owner and holder of all of said coupon-warrants or promises to pay in writing, and that ten of said coupon-warrants became and were due and payable on the first day of July, A. D. 1871, and forty-three of said coupon-warrants became and were due and payable on the first day of July, A. D. 1872, and sixty of said coupon-warrants became and were due and payable on the first day of July, A. D. 1873.

Yet the said County of Warren, although often requested so to do, has neglected and refused, and still does neglect and refuse,
11 to pay said several coupon-warrants which became due respectively as aforesaid, and the same still remains due and unpaid, to wit, at the district aforesaid.

And also for that whereas heretofore, to wit, on the twenty-fifth day of January, A. D. 1871, at the district aforesaid, the County of Warren by its legally-authorized officers and authorities, and by virtue of the laws of the State of Illinois, made, executed, and delivered to the Rockford, Rock Island and Saint Louis Railroad Company two hundred bonds, numbered from one to two hundred, inclusive, for the sum of one thousand dollars each, in and by each of which said bonds the County of Warren promised to pay to the Rockford, Rock Island and Saint Louis Railroad Company or bearer the sum of one thousand dollars, on the first day of July, A. D. 1890, with interest at the rate of eight per cent. per annum, payable annually on the first day of July in each year, on presentation to the treasurer of said county; to each of said bonds were attached twenty coupons, duly executed by the legal authorities of said Warren County, in and by each of which said county promised to pay the bearer thereof eighty dollars for the several instalments of interest to become due and payable on each of said bonds at the times such interest by the terms of said bonds becomes due and payable.

12 And the plaintiff avers that afterwards, to wit, on the thirtieth day of January, A. D. 1871, the said Rockford, Rock Island and Saint Louis Railroad Company transferred and delivered to him ten of said coupons maturing and falling due July first, A. D. 1871, and forty-three of said coupons maturing and falling due July first, A. D.

1872, and sixty of said coupons maturing and falling due July first, A. D. 1873, whereby the plaintiff became the bearer, holder, and owner thereof, and entitled to demand and recover of and from said County of Warren the several sums of money mentioned in each of said coupons and payable as aforesaid.

And the plaintiff avers that heretofore, to wit, on the first day of August, A. D. 1873, to wit, at the district aforesaid, the County of Warren, in consideration of the premises, promised to pay the plaintiff the several sums of money mentioned in each of said coupons and payable as aforesaid, and that although each of said coupons long since became due and payable and payment thereof was duly demanded, yet that the defendant has not paid the same nor any part thereof, to the plaintiff's damage.

And whereas also the said County of Warren afterwards, to wit, on the sixteenth day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, at the northern district of Illinois aforesaid, became and was indebted to the said plaintiff in the sum of 13 twenty thousand dollars of lawful money of the United States of America for divers goods, wares, and merchandise by the said plaintiff before that time sold and delivered to the said County of Warren, and at the special instance and request of the said County of Warren, and being so indebted to the said plaintiff, the said County of Warren in consideration thereof afterward, to wit, on the same day and year and at the place aforesaid, undertook and then and there faithfully promised to said plaintiff well and truly to pay unto the said plaintiff the sum of money last mentioned, when the said County of Warren should be thereunto afterwards requested.

And whereas also the said County of Warren afterward, to wit, on the same day and year and at the place aforesaid, in consideration that the said plaintiff had before that time at the like special instance and request of the said County of Warren, sold and delivered to the said County of Warren divers other goods, wares, and merchandise of the said plaintiff, the said County of Warren then and there undertook and faithfully promised the said plaintiff that the said County of Warren would well and truly pay to the said plaintiff so much money as the last aforesaid goods, wares, and merchandise at the time of sale and delivery thereof were reasonably worth when the said County of Warren should be thereunto afterward requested; and the said plaintiff avers that the 14 said goods, wares, and merchandise last mentioned at the time of sale and delivery thereof were reasonably worth the further sum of twenty thousand dollars of like lawful money as aforesaid, to wit, at the place aforesaid, whereof the said defendant afterward on the same day and year and at the place aforesaid had notice.

And whereas also the said County of Warren afterward, to wit, on the same day and year and at the place aforesaid, became and was indebted to the said plaintiff in the further sum of twenty thousand dollars of like lawful money as aforesaid, for money before that time lent and advanced by the said plaintiff to the said County of Warren, and at the like request of the said County of Warren, and in the like sum for other money by the said plaintiff before that time paid, laid out, and expended for the said County of Warren and at the request of the said County of Warren, and in the like sum for other money by the said County of Warren before that time had and received to and for the use of the said plaintiff, and in the like sum for other money before that time and then due and owing the said plaintiff for interest upon and for the forbearance of divers other sums of money before that time and then 15 due and owing from said County of Warren to said plaintiff, and in the like sum for the price and value of work then done, and material for the same provided by the plaintiff for the said County of Warren, and at the like special request of the said County of Warren; and being so indebted the said County of Warren, in consideration thereof, afterward, to wit, on the same day and year and at the place aforesaid, undertook and then and there faithfully promised the said plaintiff well and truly to pay unto the said plaintiff the several sums of money in this court mentioned when the said County of Warren should be thereunto afterward requested.

And whereas also the said County of Warren afterward, to wit, and the same day and year and at the place aforesaid, accounted together with the said plaintiff of and concerning divers other sums of money, before that time due and owing from the said County of Warren to the said plaintiff and then and there being in arrear and unpaid, and upon such accounting the said County of Warren then and there was found to be in arrear and indebted to the said plaintiff in the further sum of twenty thousand dollars of like lawful money as aforesaid, and being so found in arrear and indebted to the said plaintiff and the said County of Warren, in consideration thereof afterwards, to wit, on the same day and year and at the place aforesaid, undertook and then and there 16 faithfully promised the said plaintiff well and truly to pay unto the said plaintiff the said sum of money last mentioned when the said County of Warren should be thereunto afterward requested.

Nevertheless, the said County of Warren (although often requested, etc.) has not yet paid the several sums of money above mentioned, or any or either of them, or any part thereof, to the said plaintiff, but to pay the same, or any part thereof, to the said plaintiff the said County of Warren has hitherto altogether refused, and still does refuse, to the damage of the said plaintiff of twenty thousand dollars; and therefore the said plaintiff brings suit, etc.

Afterwards, to wit, on the 1st day of November, A. D. 1873, said defendant, by its attorneys, filed its pleas in said-entitled cause; which said pleas are in the words and figures following, to wit:

And now come the said defendants, by Harding, McCoy and Pratt, their attorneys, and, without waiving petition to stay this suit already filed, defend the wrong and injury when, &c., and for plea say at the time, when, &c., they did not assume and promise in manner and form as the plaintiff hath above declared against them, and of this the defendants put themselves upon the country, &c.

HARDING, McCOY AND PRATT,

* * * * * *

And for further plea in this behalf, the defendants say actio non, because they say that the said several causes of action in the several counts of the plaintiff's declaration mentioned are one and the same, and not other or different, as by said declaration is supposed; and defendants aver that the sole and only cause or causes of action in this 46 suit are the coupons mentioned in the first count of the said plaintiff's declaration. And defendants aver that long prior to the commencement of this suit, to wit, on the 15th day of July, A. D. 1873, one Abner C. Harding, Harding J. Merrill, Edward E. Tollman, and John O. Wheeler, tax-payers and property-holders in said county of Warren, in behalf of themselves and of all other tax-payers, property-holders, and residents of said county, impleaded the said plaintiff and filed their certain bill in chancery in the circuit court of the county of Warren, and State of Illinois, against him, the said plaintiff, and these defendants, the Board of Supervisors of said Warren County, the Rockford, Rock Island and S't Louis Railroad Company, and Wallace G. Bone, making the said plaintiff, and all other unknown owners of said bonds and coupons, parties defendant therein, by the name and style of unknown owners of the bonds and coupons described in the said declaration, and of the entire issue of bonds and coupons therein described.

By and in which said bill the complainants therein allege that all the said bonds and coupons were and are unlawful, unauthorized, null, and void; that the same were issued without lawful authority, and in fraud of the rights of complainants and other tax-payers of said county, of which the plaintiff had notice. And the said complainants in 47 said bill pray that all the said bonds and coupons may be by said court declared to be null and void, and for nothing esteemed, and that the unknown owners of said bonds and coupons should be perpetually enjoined from prosecuting the said county of Warren by reason thereof. And said defendants aver that said plaintiff was and is a party litigant in said suit, as one of the unknown owners of the said bonds and coupons; that the said bonds and coupons are the subject-matter of the said suit, which has been commenced and is now being prosecuted under the laws of the State of Illinois, to determine the question of the validity and legality of said bonds and coupons; that the said circuit court of said Warren County, before the commencement of this suit, obtained jurisdiction of all the parties defendant to said bill and of the subject-matter thereof, and that said suit is still pending and undetermined in said court. And defendants aver that all the matters and questions involved in this suit are also involved in and the subject-matter of the said suit in chancery so now pending and undetermined as aforesaid, which the defendants are ready to verify; wherefore they pray judgment, &c.

48 Afterwards, to wit, on the 22d day of November, A. D. 1873, said plaintiff, by his attorneys, filed in said clerk's office his demurrer to the said sixth plea of the said defendant; which said demurrer is in the words and figures following, to wit:

THE COUNTY OF WARREN.

It appearing to the court, by stipulation of counsel herein filed, that the judgment in this cause entered on the fifth day of January, A. D. eighteen hundred and seventy-five, was inadvertently entered against the defendant by the name of the Board of Supervisors of Warren County, whereas the name of said corporation had then been changed by act of the legislature to the county of Warren. It is thereupon considered and adjudged by the court that the plaintiff do have and recover of the defendant, the County of Warren, the said sum of ten thousand dollars and sixty-four cents, the damages so as aforesaid assessed, together with his costs and charges in this behalf expended, amounting to the sum of ninety-eight dollars and eighty-five cents.

58 Special finding by the court.

In circuit court United States.

GEORGE O. MARCY
THE COUNTY OF WARREN.

This cause having been submitted to the court, by agreement in writing, without the intervention of a jury, and besides interposing the various statutes of the State bearing on the subject the following facts were proven, to wit:

That the plaintiff at the commencement of this suit was the holder of coupons of the bonds of the county of Warren, bought by him for value before maturity and without actual notice of their alleged invalidity or of any suit in relation thereto (as to which coupons and the amount due thereon there was no controversy, but only as to the liability of the county thereon); that at the time of the maturity of the several coupons and ever since the county denied the validity of the same.

That the said coupons were for the annual interest on certain bonds of the county of Warren, which, to the amount of two hundred thousand dollars, of the form and denomination described in the declaration, were executed on January 25, 1871, under the hand of the clerk of the 59 board of supervisors of Warren County, and with the seal of the county, by order of a majority of the members of said board, at a meeting of the said board held on said day, and then delivered by said clerk, as directed by the majority of the board, to the Rockford, Rock Island & S't Louis R. R. Company, in payment of a subscription of a like amount to the stock of said company, which purported to be made in March, 1870, in the name of said county, by the chairman of said board, in pursuance of an order of said board, as hereinafter stated; said bonds were registered in the office of the county clerk of Warren County, & so certified by the clerk January 25, 1871, and were registered Jan. 27th, 1871, in the office of the State auditor of public accounts, and so certified by the auditor, the certificate of the clerk and auditor being on each of said bonds.

That the proceedings of the board of supervisors and county officers which resulted in the issue of said bonds were as follows:

On August 23, 1869, the said board called an election of the people of Warren County, to be held on September 23, 1869, for the purpose, as stated in their order and the notice of said election, to determine 60 the question of a county subscription of two hundred thousand dollars to the stock of the Rockford, Rock Island & S't Louis R. R. Co., "including the one hundred thousand dollars previously voted" that the "one hundred thousand dollars previously voted" was a subscription never made, but "previously voted," by the people of Warren County to the S't Louis, Alton & Rock Island Railroad Company, and the right to have this sum was claimed to have been transferred to the Rockford, Rock Island and S't Louis R. R. Company by virtue of an act of the general assembly of the State of Illinois, passed at the session of 1869.

That notices for the election of Sept. 23d, 1869, were not published in the newspapers of said county of Warren until August 27th, 1869, and that some of those posted in the county were not posted for the full period of thirty days, and in one township no notice was posted at all;

but that in all townships except the one notices were published for periods varying from twenty to thirty days.

That the election was held on September 23, 1869, and at said election those voting for said subscription were seventeen hundred and seventy-five (1,775), and those against the subscription were nine hundred and seventy-five (975), and the total vote of the county, as shown by the votes cast at the last general election, was four thousand seven 61 hundred & thirty-one; that said vote, soon after September 23, 1869, were duly canvassed and filed in the clerk's office, and that, on March 16th, 1870, the said board declared that the election had resulted in favor of the subscription, and ordered David Turnbull, then chairman, to subscribe two hundred thousand dollars to the stock of said company.

That on the 18th day of July, 1870, A. C. Harding, a tax-payer and citizen of said county, filed a bill in chancery against the county officers and said company, asking for an injunction to prevent said subscription being made and said bonds from being issued, and obtained the injunction in August, A. D. 1870. That the bill was filed by said tax-payer, as above stated, in behalf of himself and of all other tax-payers and citizens of said county, and against the said board, its chairman, & clerk, and said company, as defendants, in the circuit court of Warren County, Illinois.

That by said bill said complainant set up the foregoing facts, among other things, and charged that the said county officers had no authority by law to make said subscription and issue said bonds, but threatened to do so, and prayed that they be restrained by a writ of injunction from so doing, and that their proceedings be set aside and declared void.
62 That a summons and writ of injunction, according to the prayer of the bill, was issued and served upon the defendants in August, 1870. The complainant filing the required bond, said injunction was in full force until January 23, 1871, when on motion of the said defendants and against the objections of said complainant it was dissolved.

That the complainant thereupon at said term, on the 27th day of January, 1871, prayed an appeal from said order dissolving said injunction, offering proper bond, but the court refused said appeal. That thereupon said cause went to final hearing, and said hearing was had at said term, to wit, upon February 2, 1871, and a decree was entered dismissing said bill.

That from this decree the said complainant prayed and perfected an appeal to the supreme court of the State, and so prosecuted the said appeal that, at the first term thereafter of said supreme court, the cause was heard and the supreme court, after due consideration afterwards, and upon the day of , A. D. 1873, entered a decree ordering said decree of the circuit court to be reversed, and the cause to be remanded with directions to said circuit court to enter a decree for the complainant according to the prayer of the bill.
63 That in accordance with the order of said supreme court, and after the suit in this case was commenced, but before the trial, the decree was, upon the day of , A. D. 1873, entered in the said circuit court of Warren County. That the said case of said Harding was commenced and prosecuted by the said Harding in good faith and without collusion.

The acts of March 4th, of March 25th, and of March 26th, 1869, were pending before the legislature at the same time, and the two former acts were reported by the same committee, to the senate at the same time, the latter of the two being amended and a substitute for the former being recommended by the committee, and the recommendation of the committee being concurred in, both were then passed in their new shape.

That it appears by the journals that the law of March 25th was first introduced into the legislature, both this and the bill of March 4th being house bills, that the act of March 25th passed every step of its progress in the house and then went to the senate, and there passed its second reading and was referred to said committee before the act of March 4th overtook it.

64 That the road of said company is about three hundred miles in length, and was partially built north and south of Warren County, and it was declared by the company that it would go through Warren County before said election was held.

That before the said subscription of said county was made, and its bonds issued, said railroad company had obtained from the towns of Warren County subscriptions to the amount of about one hundred and fifty thousand dollars to its stock, in payment of which about the same time the bonds of said towns were issued and paid to said company.

That the act of March 4th, 1869, above referred to, is entitled "An act to incorporate the Rockford, Rock Island & S't Louis R. R. Co.", and is found in the private laws of 1869, vol. 3, p. 342.

That the act of March 25, 1869, above referred to, is entitled "An act to authorize certain counties and towns therein named to subscribe stock in railroad companies," and is found in the private laws of 1869, vol. 3, p. 368. The act of March 26, 1869, is found vol. 3, private laws of 1869, p. 365.

65 Upon the foregoing facts (some of which were objected to by the plaintiff's counsel as incompetent & irrelevant, and were admitted by the court, subject to objection), and which were all the facts in evidence bearing on the merits of the case, the court found for the plaintiff and assessed the damages, the court being of the opinion that the plaintiff was entitled to recover, to which finding and opinion the defendant then and there excepted.

THOMAS DRUMMOND.

(Endorsed:) Filed Jan'y 8, 1875. W. H. Bradley, clerk.

66 And afterwards, to wit, on the 8th day of January, A. D. 1875, said defendant filed in said clerk's office his bond in appeal in said-entitled cause, which said bond in appeal is in the words and figures following, to wit:

Appeal-bond.

Know all men by these presents that Warren County, in the State of Illinois, as principal, and George F. Harding, as security, are held and firmly bound unto George O. Marcy, of the city of Boston, in the full and just sum of twenty-one thousand dollars, to be paid to the said George O. Marcy, his attorneys, administrators, or assigns, to which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors, and administrators, jointly and severally, by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this 8th day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

Whereas, lately, at a term of the circuit court of the United States for the northern district of Illinois, in a suit depending in said court between George O. Marcy, plaintiff, and the board of supervisors of Warren County, Illinois, defendant, a judgment was rendered against the said the county of Warren on January 5th, A. D. 1875, for the sum of ten thousand and $\frac{69}{100}$ dollars and the said defendant having obtained writ of error and filed a copy thereof in the clerk's office of the said court 67 to reverse the judgment in the aforesaid suit, and a citation directed to the said plaintiff, citing and admonishing to be and appear at a Supreme Court of the United States to be holden at Washington the second Monday of October next:

Now the condition of the above obligation is such that if the said defendant shall prosecute its writ of error to effect, and answer all damages and costs if it fails to make its plea good, then the above obligation to be void; else to remain in full force and virtue.
